Listed below is the information used to calculate your release dates. Your dates are computed by the statutory laws applicable to your case. If all the information listed is correct, your release dates are correct. If the listed information is incorrect, please contact the arresting agency and request that they provide us with the correct information. The Good Time Act shown is the Good Time Act that was in effect when your case was sentenced. If you qualify for conversion to another Good Time Act, your release dates have been adjusted.
